

Camp Closure Cancellation Policy

In the event Farm Camp is unable to open, is forced to begin late, or close early due to circumstances beyond Camp's control, including but not limited to weather, floods, utility failures, air quality, inaccessibility, pandemic, civil unrest, governmental order or other such reason, Camp shall not be responsible for any costs, losses, or other damages beyond a refund of tuition minus deposits, or a proportionate share thereof in the event of a partial shutdown as outlined in the Camp Closure Cancellation Policy. Upon closure, families will be asked to choose from one of the following options below:

- Option 1 - Put Full Tuition Funds on Account - Place your full tuition on account for future use. This amount is fully transferable to friends or family but must be used within the next 2 summers following the closure at Farm Camp, Mountain Camp, Mountain Camp Marin or Mountain Camp Woodside. These funds are non-refundable once placed on credit for future use.
- Option 2 - Receive a Partial Refund - You will receive a prorated refund for days that camp is closed, less the non-refundable deposit.
- Option 3 - Make a Donation to Camp - Any part of your tuition (minus the deposit) can be donated to help us sustain our program. We are grateful for your support.

**Credits on file from previous summers are not eligible for cash refunds.
